LEARNING FROM A "CERTAIN WOMAN"

JULIA BETTENCOURT

Dear Sister in Christ,

This study was originally made as an online study for my blog. I wrote it in a casual way as I was talking a little bit for four days to my followers, which are mostly pastors' wives and women's ministry leaders. We traveled a little each day during the study with this "certain woman" in Mark chapter 5 and Luke 8, while she was on her way to meet Jesus.

Join me and take a look at this story to learn three wonderful things about this woman who seeks out Jesus in the city of Capernaum. She had a determined spirit, a focused faith, and an immediate healing.

I hope you will enjoy this little journey with me as we walk along with this woman to get up close to Jesus just to touch His garment, and then, praise the Lord, to find healing!

Creative blessings,
Julia Bettencourt
